Mellifont Abbey 3

16 April 2013

Mellifont, County Louth

This was taken at the 11th Century ruins of the Cistercian monastery at Mellifont on an outing with Mid Louth camera club. This is a long exposure . The ruins were lit up at intervals by Richie and Teddy using speedlites. Blue gel was used on one of the speedlites to achieve the blue effect at the front. They ran around lighting up the ruins, and in between the flashes , we covered our lens with black card to avoid polluting the images with stray light
